OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR

27 May 1965

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director

I have discussed this designation with Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Bross together, and later informally with Mr. Coyne. Although Mr. Bross is no more enthusiastic than one normally is to have additional duties, he could see the logic of his selection and is quite prepared to take on this job. Mr. Kirkpatrick is in favor of it. Mr. Coyne indicated that it was satisfactory with him, although I did not put him in the position of approving or disapproving. I simply did him the courtesy of letting him know the direction of our thinking.
